PASHA Hotels & Resorts LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of PASHA Holding, is a new hotel management company. With the establishment of PASHA Hotels & Resorts the group is aiming to become a strategic hospitality industry player with a medium-term aspiration of taking a leading position in the national and regional markets through establishing a world class portfolio of hotels and resorts. The hotel portfolio will stretch across various hotel categories from mid-scale life-style to luxury hotels and other hospitality entities both in and outside of Baku.

At present PASHA group owns two luxury hotels in the capital of Azerbaijan, namely Four Seasons, and JW Marriott Absheron, which are successfully managed by the respective international hotel management companies. The new projects which PASHA Hotels & Resorts will directly manage include two five-star hotels in Shahdag Mountains, a newly established ski-resort destination on the North of Azerbaijan, scheduled to open in winter 2013-2014. In addition, three new mid-scale hotels located in the city of Baku are at early stages of project development which will bring the total hotel rooms capacity up to 1,500 guest rooms by the middle of 2015 - the year of the first Euro Olympics which will be held in Baku, Azerbaijan.
